

Bridge Weekend in Antwerp

11th -13th September 2015

It is with great pleasure that I invite you to join me this September on a bridge weekend in Antwerp. The main event is a Saturday afternoon café drive in the heart of one of Europe's great cities. We will also be welcomed at the Royal Squeeze Club, one of Belgium's pre-eminent bridge clubs, and there will be plenty of opportunities for sightseeing and relaxation.

The package which I have negotiated with Eurostar permits outward travel on either Thursday morning or Friday lunchtime, and return on either Sunday or Monday evening. All choices include the café bridge and the Royal Squeeze games. Non-bridge playing friends, spouses and partners are also welcome, and there is an abundance of things to see and do in Antwerp.

Please book using the form at the bottom of this document. I have now exhausted my initial supply of Eurostar tickets, so please consult either me directly or the online payment form at <https://www.brianbridge.net/antwerp2015> to find the up-to-date price. Don't hesitate to send me any feedback or questions at:

antwerpbridge2015@gmail.com

I hope the as many people as possible will be able to join in this event, and look forward to hearing from you soon.

About Antwerp

Antwerp is a beautiful city in the north of Belgium. Full of fine buildings and with a rich history, it has been named in the world's top 10 of must-see destinations. It has the second largest harbour in Europe after Rotterdam, and has numerous architectural highlights, most of which date from the city's golden era in the 16th and the 17th century. While the destruction during the Second World War scarred the old town somewhat, there are still enough monuments to spend a few days admiring them. The past is also on show at the house Peter Paul Rubens who lived in Antwerp during the early 17th century, and at a fascinating museum of printing based in the old factory of the Platijn printing dynasty. There are numerous restaurants and cafés, situated in some of the most attractive surroundings anywhere in Europe.

Sinjoorentocht 12.9.2015

Our main event is the Sinjoorentocht club's annual Café Bridge Drive in the centre of Antwerp starting at 1pm. Each pair will play at six or seven cafe/bars close together around the central plazas, with a free drinks voucher for every location. Play ends at about 6.30pm, and results are announced at 9pm. Although Dutch is the primary language, English is widely spoken and full instructions are given.

Royal Squeeze Bridge Club 11.9.2015 (eve) & 13.9.2015

An historic bridge club with its own premises in the Charlottalei across from our hotel, frequented by many of the best players in Belgium. We are invited for dinner and bridge at their Friday evening game, and perhaps a further event there on Sunday.

Plaza Hotel

Friendly and luxurious hotel in the same tree lined avenue as the Royal Squeeze bridge club. Set in the diamond quarter of Antwerp. You can read more about it here.
