About the National Liberal Club

Our historic club was founded by British Prime Minister Gladstone in 1882, and our clubhouse, designed by Alfred Waterhouse, was completed in 1887. Historic members include Britain's first Indian MP Dadabhai Naoroji, as well as founder of Pakistan M. A. Jinnah.

We remain among London's most successful members' clubs, with one of the largest clubhouses and excellent value membership fees. Located opposite Embankment tube station, we are second to none in convenience. Please have a look around while you are visiting!
