

Ayrshire Trip 2026

Monday 8th - Thursday 11th June

It is with great pleasure that I invite you to join me in June on a bridge-themed adventure to Ayrshire. The main events are Café Bridge Days in Prestwick and Strathaven, which attract players from all over Scotland.

We will take the train first class to Prestwick and experience its history and coastal scenery. We will traverse the rugged landscapes which inspired the poetry of Robert Burns, and discover the town of Strathaven (pronounced Straven), a hidden inland gem.

The package includes outward train travel departing Monday lunchtime, three nights of accommodation, Prestwick Café Bridge on Tuesday, Strathaven Café Bridge on Wednesday, and a welcome bridge buffet at the cosy Ayrshire Bridge Centre. As ever, non-bridge playing friends, spouses and partners are also welcome.

Return travel from Glasgow to London is not included, as some prefer to stay on and make their own way back. I am able to book rail tickets back to Euston to order, as well as extra nights in Prestwick - please ask.

As well as hotel accommodation, I am able to book serviced apartments for occupancy by between one and eight people.

Enquiries and bookings may be made to me Victor Lesk directly by phone on 07804 953460 or by email at brianplaysbridge@gmail.com. A booking form may be found at the end of this leaflet. Places are limited, so book early to avoid disappointment.

Prestwick beach

About Prestwick

Prestwick is a coastal town spread along the Firth of Clyde. It faces westward towards the Isle of Arran, which can be seen prominently from the beach. It is the site of Bruce's Well, which Robert the Bruce used for healing towards the end of his life. The striking landscape which nurtured Burns' poetry also saw the dawn of the British Open Championship, first played at Prestwick Golf Club in 1860 and returning there on many occasions.

Prestwick also boasts the Ayrshire Bridge Centre, a building owned by the county association and dedicated to the pursuit of bridge, where our hosts look forward to welcoming us in the evening after we arrive.

Prestwick adjoins the county town of Ayr, and crossing the Ayr river gives access to further history, walks and activities.

About Strathaven

Strathaven is an appealing market town off the tourist track. Back in the 17th century it lay in contested territory, when Strathaven castle was an important base for the 'covenanters', fighting against Cromwell and the post-restoration monarchs in turn, to establish the presbyterian system in Scotland.

Nowadays Strathaven boasts Taal the 2023 winner of the Best Indian Restaurant in Scotland competition. Strathaven Park is regularly voted in the UK's top ten parks and has won a prestigious Green Flag Award.

Our hosts will be the thriving Strathaven Bridge Club. On Strathaven Café Bridge Day we will meet players from nearby Hamilton and Kilmarnock as well as further afield.
